The development and growth of the city have caused that wineries leave their original environment in search of more suitable spaces to expand their activity.

Nowadays, the wineries located in Logroño belonging to RIOJA qualified denomination of origin embrace the city, remembering its origins.
Key wins in Camino de Santiago

FRANCO ESPAÑOLAS

Bodegas Franco-Españolas, since founded in 1858, has achieved an outstanding balance between respect for tradition and technology incorporating in its portfolio emblematic wines such as Don Belén I and Diamante, winners of more than 80 awards in wine competitions. Founded by Dionisio de Vargas in 1889, Bodegas Franco-Españolas, since founded in 1890, has achieved a wide array of innovative wine tourism experiences, together with the single variety Grenache and Mazuelo wines which form part of the identity of this area.

MARQUÉS DE VARGAS

Mentioning the name Marqués de Vargas means referring to the château concept, at the heart of the Rioja Alta. The Artesans Wine Workshop offers the following: To taste select wines of Rioja Oriental, where the single variety Garnacha and Mazuelo wines possess strong, distinct character, which in turn form part of the identity of this area.

TALLER DE VINOS ABUZINDA

Today it has become a solid family project that produces high-quality wines such as Bordón and Diamante, witnesses of a more than a century tradition of making wine. In 1840, Don Felipe de la Mata, 8th Marquis of Vargas, decided to plant the first grapevines at the Hacienda Pradolagar. The history of wine through mythology will be the common thread of the visit. The silence of the barrels room will let you understand the myth of Rioja in the world. A team of experienced wine professionals hosts intimate groups under appointment from Monday to Saturday in English, French, German and Spanish.

BODEGAS VALORIA

Bodegas Valoria, is just down from Logroño, at the heart of the Camino de Santiago and very close to La Grajera Park and the Ferrol Santa María de la Encarnación. A legendary bodega, and one of the oldest in DOC Rioja, conserves vintage wines as part of its collection. Currently, the bodega is focused on innovation, giving gas to the wine and wine tastings by professionals in a variety of languages.

Opening hours: Monday to Friday 09:00-13:00 and 16:30-19:30. Timetable for guided tours- Monday to Sunday with an appointment.